3.1 Study Periods

All international students are enrolled for not more than 20 hours of full – time study per week at Danford College.

Study periods also known as 'terms' are outlined in the Training Plan provided to the students during commencements. A study period is defined as 200 hours of study and is usually delivered in a ten (10) week duration. A study period in a course is as designated in the table below:

Qualification Level	Term Duration (Study Period)	Total Terms
Certificate III level	10 weeks	2

The terms outline the process to monitor course progress for each student. For more information regarding monitoring the course progress please refer to section 4 of the policy. Student needs to maintain a minimum of 50% in each term to maintain required the course progress. A student failing to maintain minimum 50% in any term will be 'at risk' student.

Danford College delivers all the classes face – to – face. All students are required to attend the college face – to – face for all the classes and knowledge assessments. Danford does not provide any distance or online learning in any term or for any unit to international students

3.2 Course Completion: Expected Duration

All international students enrolled with Danford College are required to maintain course progress and complete their course within the duration specified on their eCoE. Danford College is committed to ensuring that all students are supported through their course of study to assist them to achieve the qualification in their enrolled course.

The duration of the course may be extended if it is evident that the student will not complete the course within the expected duration, as specified on the student's eCoE, due to:

- There are compassionate or compelling circumstances, as assessed by the registered provider on the basis of demonstrable evidence, or
- The registered provider has implemented, or is in the process of implementing, an intervention strategy for the overseas student because the overseas student is at risk of not meeting course progress requirements, or
- An approved deferral or suspension of the overseas student's enrolment has occurred under Standard 9 (Deferring, suspending or cancelling the overseas student's enrolment).

Except in the circumstances listed above, the expected duration of study, as specified in the student's eCoE, must not exceed the CRICOS registered course duration.

Any variation in the student's enrolment load which may affect the student's expected duration of study, together with the reason for the variation, will be recorded on the student's file by the Compliance Manager or (delegate). The Compliance Manager or (delegate) will correctly report the student via PRISMS and issue a new eCoE with the revised course end date. All changes to a student's course duration are reported to the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) via the PRISMS reporting system and records regarding the decision process are kept in student files.

If the duration of student's enrolment is extended, Danford College will issue a new eCoE and advise the student to contact the Department of Home Affairs <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/> to seek advise on any potential impacts on their student visa, including the need to obtain a new visa.

4. Monitoring course progress

All students shall be deemed 'Competent (C)' or 'Not Yet Competent (NYC)' for each unit within the qualification that they are enrolled in based on their assessment outcome. The assessment shall be conducted by qualified trainers / assessors according to Danford College's Assessment Policy. All academic results are entered into the Student Records Management System (RTO Manager) by the Student Administration Department.

Course Progress is reviewed at the end of each study period (200 hours) for each student by the Course Progress Officer (CPO) on the Student Management System. Course Progress is calculated for each study period (200 hours) based on the total number of units to be assessed in one term.
